CASE NUMBER: 21-CR-291-2 (ABJ)

SUPERVISED RELEASE

Upon release from imprisonment, you will be on supervised release for a term of:

Thirty-Six (36) months on Count Count Four (4s) of the Superseding Indictment.

MANDATORY CONDITIONS

1.	You must not commit another federal, state or local crime.
2.	You must not unlawfully possess a controlled substance.
3.	You must refrain from any unlawful use of a controlled substance. You must submit to one drug test within 15 days of release from imprisonment and at least two periodic drug tests thereafter, as determined by the court.
	☐ The above drug testing condition is suspended, based on the court's determination that you pose a low risk of future substance abuse. (check if applicable)
4.	✓ You must make restitution in accordance with 18 U.S.C. §§ 3663 and 3663A or any other statute authorizing a sentence of restitution. (check if applicable)
5.	You must cooperate in the collection of DNA as directed by the probation officer. (check if applicable)
6.	You must comply with the requirements of the Sex Offender Registration and Notification Act (34 U.S.C. § 20901, et seq.) as directed by the probation officer, the Bureau of Prisons, or any state sex offender registration agency in the location where you reside, work, are a student, or were convicted of a qualifying offense. (check if applicable)
7.	☐ You must participate in an approved program for domestic violence. (check if applicable)

You must comply with the standard conditions that have been adopted by this court as well as with any other conditions on the attached page.

STANDARD CONDITIONS OF SUPERVISION

As part of your supervised release, you must comply with the following standard conditions of supervision. These conditions are imposed because they establish the basic expectations for your behavior while on supervision and identify the minimum tools needed by probation officers to keep informed, report to the court about, and bring about improvements in your conduct and condition.

- You must report to the probation office in the federal judicial district where you are authorized to reside within 72 hours of your release from imprisonment, unless the probation officer instructs you to report to a different probation office or within a different time frame.
- After initially reporting to the probation office, you will receive instructions from the court or the probation officer about how and when you must report to the probation officer, and you must report to the probation officer as instructed.
- You must not knowingly leave the federal judicial district where you are authorized to reside without first getting permission from the court or the probation officer.

You must answer truthfully the questions asked by your probation officer. 4.

You must live at a place approved by the probation officer. If you plan to change where you live or anything about your living arrangements (such as the people you live with), you must notify the probation officer at least 10 days before the change. If notifying the probation officer in advance is not possible due to unanticipated circumstances, you must notify the probation officer within 72 hours of becoming aware of a change or expected change.

You must allow the probation officer to visit you at any time at your home or elsewhere, and you must permit the probation officer to take any items prohibited by the conditions of your supervision that he or she observes in plain view.

You must work full time (at least 30 hours per week) at a lawful type of employment, unless the probation officer excuses you from doing so. If you do not have full-time employment you must try to find full-time employment, unless the probation officer excuses you from doing so. If you plan to change where you work or anything about your work (such as your position or your job responsibilities), you must notify the probation officer at least 10 days before the change. If notifying the probation officer at least 10 days in advance is not possible due to unanticipated circumstances, you must notify the probation officer within 72 hours of becoming aware of a change or expected change.

You must not communicate or interact with someone you know is engaged in criminal activity. If you know someone has been convicted of a felony, you must not knowingly communicate or interact with that person without first getting the permission of the probation officer.

If you are arrested or questioned by a law enforcement officer, you must notify the probation officer within 72 hours.

- 10. You must not own, possess, or have access to a firearm, ammunition, destructive device, or dangerous weapon (i.e., anything that was designed, or was modified for, the specific purpose of causing bodily injury or death to another person such as nunchakus or tasers).
- You must not act or make any agreement with a law enforcement agency to act as a confidential human source or informant without first getting the permission of the court.
- 12. If the probation officer determines that you pose a risk to another person (including an organization), the probation officer may require you to notify the person about the risk and you must comply with that instruction. The probation officer may contact the person and confirm that you have notified the person about the risk.

You must follow the instructions of the probation officer related to the conditions of supervision.

U.S. Probation Office Use Only

A U.S. probation officer has instructed me on the conditions specified by the court and has provided me with a written copy of this judgment containing these conditions. For further information regarding these conditions, see Overview of Probation and Supervised Release Conditions, available at: www.uscourts.gov.

SPECIAL CONDITIONS OF SUPERVISION

Supervised Release - The Court will transfer the supervision, but not the jurisdiction, of defendant's supervised release to the United States Probation Office in the District to which the defendant is released.

Restitution Balance - The defendant must pay the balance of any restitution owed at the time of his release in an amount to be determined by the United States Probation Office, but at a rate of no less than $100.00 per month beginning 30 days after his release from confinement or placement on supervision.

DNA Sample Requirement - Pursuant to 42 USC § 14135a, for all felony offenses, the defendant shall submit to the collection and use of DNA identification information while incarcerated in the Bureau of Prisons, or at the direction of the United States Probation Office.

Financial Disclosure - The defendant must provide the United States Probation Office with access to any requested financial information and authorize the release of any financial information. The defendant must also notify the United States Probation Office in advance of taking out any new credit obligation and obtain permission to do so. The United States Probation Office may share this information with the United States Attorney's Office.

Substance Abuse / Mental Health Assessment - The defendant must undergo an assessment or assessments at the discretion of the United States Probation Office to determine whether substance abuse, anger management, or other psychological treatment is indicated, and if so, the defendant must participate in any outpatient substance abuse, anger management treatment or therapy or any other treatment or therapy at the direction and under the supervision of the United States Probation Office. The Probation Officer will supervise the defendant's participation in any programs (provider, location, modality, duration, intensity, etc.). The defendant must sign any releases necessary to enable the United States Probation Office to monitor this compliance.

Community Service - The defendant must complete 100 hours of community service of a nature and at a location approved in advance, and under the supervision of the United States Probation Office. The defendant must provide verification of those hours to the United States Probation Office.

Re-entry Progress Hearing - Within sixty (60) days of his release from incarceration or placement on supervision the United States Probation Officer will submit a progress report summarizing the defendant's status and compliance with his release conditions. Upon receipt of the progress report, the Court will determine if the defendant's appearance at a reentry progress hearing is required, or if a video conference should be set up for that purpose. If the defendant is supervised by a district outside of the Washington, DC metropolitan area, the United States Probation Office in that district will submit a progress report to the court within sixty (60) days of the commencement of supervision.
