All Trump has left is to invoke the insurrection Act and use his power to declassify. He must order SOCOM to seize all the data on the deep state traitors held by CIA, FBI, NSA, etc, and have SOCOM intel do the declass and data dump to the public. Expose them all. And task the military with suppressing the insurrection.

He must also remove Barr immediately, and put in a real fighter, and a special prosecutor. But that is a side issue.

At war with China and all its American proxies, who are the domestic traitors and insurrectionists.

Trump needs to be a wartime president and wage war on our enemies.

That's all he has left. If he doesn't do that, then we will have to fight against an illegitimate Biden regime and all of the deep stage with him. It will be a bloody and desperate fight.

We are going to have a fight. That can't be avoided. But it's better to have a fight now, while Trump is commander in Chief than to wait till he is gone
