Safe, okay, tired. Kc PB helped de escalate issues in the capital building between trump supporters and cops.

We entered 30 minutes after building was breached. Told people to stop acting like anarchists.

Told some people to start bagging trash. From where they threw trash cans at cops, along with a woman who was saying the same thing to the protestors.

None damaged property in capital.

I whispered to a cop just up the stairs. "Proud boys de escalated downstairs, they are clearing out" to aid his situation knowledge, he nodded, but was so chaotic he might not remember. Older hefty white guy.

I was already exhausted when proud boys arrived at the capital. New combat boots, walked all the way from washington monument, capital building, and around it, then when we walked around it to the side facing washington monument, trump supporters from rally showed up at the same time, and the breach of the first fence happened, and maga people started streaming up the steps and so we started filtering in with them.
